Fulfilling a Childhood Dream

Miss Massachusetts to Compete for Miss America Title

Mattapoisett's Lisa Gail Desroches, who earned the title of Miss Massachusetts this past June, is the epitome of nervous excitement.

She admits having been very busy these past few days, but doesn't seem to mind that her leisure hours have been few and far between.

For her, that's part of the hoopla surrounding what has come to mean as much to America as mom and apple pie.

Despite all the rushing around, she remains confident, alert and focused when discussing her trip this week to Atlantic City where she will begin preliminary preparations for the Miss America Pageant on September 19.

"It's very much that little girl inside of me that's coming out now," she said. "I mean everyone grew up watching Miss America on television and to finally become a contestant is the realization of my childhood dream."

But unlike many other pageant contestants who have yearned for such an honor their whole life, Ms. Desroches didn't give the idea a second thought until a friend forced her into it.

"It was a dare between me and my best friend in high school when we were seniors," she said. "She told me that I should try out for a local pageant and I ended up winning third place and she came in fourth."

The attractive 22-year-old, who is presently attending Wheaton College in Norton and plans to work as a chiropractor, disagrees with the perception most people have of the pageant. She doesn't think there's anything at all demeaning or exploitative about Miss America.

"A lot of people do ask me about that," she said. "But they are confusing Miss America with those 'other pageants' which are essentially glorified modelling shows."

"Many people don't realize that in order to qualify for the Miss America Pageant, you have to be enrolled in college, full-time and actively pursuing a degree."

Ms. Desroches said that her involvement in various pageants over the years has afforded her the opportunity to go to schools she otherwise would not have been able to afford. Her last two titles as Miss Taunton (1989) and Miss Bedford (1991) gave her some $15,000 in scholarship funding ... and she can garner as much as $35,000 in additional money if she wins the Miss America title this month.

"I can't use the money to buy a car, or a fur coat or anything for myself," she said. "The money earned is given only in the form of scholarships."

The former Taunton native who moved to Mattapoisett last year seems far more timid when discussing her personal life. But when talking about her plans for Miss America, she takes on an air of determination and motivation.

"There are basically four key competitions in the pageant," she said. "An interview, the swimsuit competition, the talent competition, and the evening gown."

"But the judges never score any of the girls on what they're wearing. All scores are based on the issues."

And, according to Ms. Desroches, these questions must have some substance.

"They won't be asking 'fluff' questions like 'What would you do to solve world hunger?'" she said. "They like to put an emphasis on 'smart women.'"

For her platform presentation, she will be discussing the importance of platelet donors in the realm of cancer research. It is an issue which she has come intimately involved with, having spent countless volunteer hours at the Dana Farber Cancer Institute after losing her mother to cancer two years ago.

"It's something that's very important to me and as Miss Massachusetts I've been able to bring the issue to a large audience," she said. "I'm also a biologist and have a good grasp of the medical terms and ideas involved, so I think I've made some progress in getting the word out."

Having been a platelet donor herself for some time, she looks forward to continuing her work as a spokesperson for cancer research either on the state or national level.

She is a little worried about her talent competition, however, recalling her mishap at the state pageant earlier this year.

"I was doing a dance routine and broke my left foot during the performance," she said. "I didn't tell anyone until after I had won the title. It has healed pretty well, but I'm a little concerned about dancing again on a weakened foot."

She has since been seeing a therapist who specializes in professional sports injuries and is confident that her new routine will go smoothly.

Ms. Desroches also defends the assumption that after winning each title, her work is done. "Most people just assume you sit at home looking at your crown," she said. "But, in fact, we spend a lot of time making public appearances and providing public service."

She's also hoping to be the first-ever Miss Massachusetts to win the Miss America title for her state — having been only the second Miss New Bedford to ever reach the state level.

"The last Miss New Bedford to even win the state title was Mabel Bendickson in 1921," she said. "We usually lose out to the Boston area."

Lisa Desroches has come a long way since her days as a senior at Taunton High School when she embarked on the road to Atlantic City at the urging of a friend.

But she seems utterly content with the way things have turned out so far.

"I'm taking the next year off from school," she said. "And depending on what happens with Miss America, I should be returning next September."

She has a warm smile and a peaceful quality that is addicting.

For her crucial talent competition, she has painstakingly prepared a dance routine which will be comprised of a character ballet dance with a storyline. Her character, whom she refers to as "Fee-Fee," is portrayed as a girl who finds a chorus girl feather on the street and plays out an elaborate fantasy as a dancer.

It's a storyline that may have deep roots in reality for Ms. Desroches who will also live out her own fantasy on September 19 in Atlantic City.

Candidates to debate on Bay 8

Democrats vying for District 10 seat will discuss issues during televised forum

A special debate between the three Democratic candidates for Representative in the Tenth District will be televised on Continental Cablevision's Bay 8 (channel 8) on Tuesday, September 8 at 7:30 pm and Wednesday, September 9 at 7:30 pm.

John Getchell, William "Bill" Strauss, and Bonnie Logan Tavares are slated to appear and will be asked questions from a panel comprised of local media representatives in an effort to clarify their platforms and political agendas.

Scheduled panelists include Sean Martin of radio station WBSM in New Bedford, Lisa Roderick of MPG Newspapers, Inc., and Kenneth J. Souza, News Editor of The Wanderer.

The debate, hosted and moderated by Len Roberts of The Standard-Times, was taped this past week for broadcast during next week's public access schedule.

Starting this week, The Wanderer will be publishing a complete program listing for cable access Bay 8 (channel 8).

Adoptable Animals

In its continuing effort to help place abandoned or homeless animals in the area, The Wanderer offers this weekly section showcasing pets in need of a home in conjunction with the local chapter of Animal Umbrella, Inc., headed by Priscilla Thompson and Mary Lou Kobak.

We are pleased to say that both of last week's adoptees — "Sunshine" and "Honey" — were taken into area homes where they will make some proud owner happy.

This week, we have two more adorable adoptables in search of a home.

But unlike past offerings, this adult couple has to be placed in the wake of their owner's leaving the area. Both cats are currently in foster care in Rochester and must be placed within the week.

First up is "Dizzy," an all-white, short-haired female with blue eyes. She is about five years old and is comfortable both indoors and out ... but like any cuddly kitty, she prefers the comforts of home.

Her companion, "Kitty," is an all-black, long-haired male who's great with kids. He's about eight years old, has been neutered and is cool, calm and collected. Some food, shelter and a warm place to sleep is all he needs to be happy.

Both have always been together and Animal Umbrella, Inc. would like them placed in the same home.

Selectman Mahoney moved to approve the minutes of the August 25, 1992 Selectmen's Meeting, which was seconded by Selectman Lambalat and made unanimous by Chairman DeCosta.

The board then signed payrolls, bills, licenses, permits and outgoing correspondence for the week.

Selectman Mahoney cited a request from ComGas to disturb the surface of 8 Chapel Road for the purpose of installing a new gas service.

Work to install the service three feet below the pavement was slated to begin on September 2, 1992.

The board sent letters to Jordan C. Collyer and Corey Silva for their "heroic efforts" in recently helping two sick Mattapoissett residents. Selectmen Mahoney read the letter of commendation that would be sent to each, saying that without their help in getting the police to arrive at the scene on time, both men could have been more seriously injured.

Chairman DeCosta then cited a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 2 with the Marion/Mattapoissett/Rochester Housing Co-Op, Inc. at 2:00 pm in the Marion Town Hall. Scheduled to be present at the meeting were Rep. Barney Frank and Senator Erving Wall to discuss applications for the Soft Second Loan Mortgage Program.

A letter was sent from the board to Charles and Virginia Morgan of Mattapoissett in response to their disappointment in not having a town report available for 1991. Selectman Lambalot asked if there was any way to compensate for this loss if not this year then next year. Executive Secretary Adams explained that since Town Meeting voted not to fund the printing of the annual report, there was no money in the current budget to do so.

The report — which has been mailed to 2400 town residents in past years — cost over $8,000 in printing and postage costs.

The board agreed that something should be done to make the report available to all residents, as Chairman DeCosta said it has been something residents are used to getting every year.

"Even if we charge a buck or two to defer printing and mailing costs, I think it would be worth it to get copies to everyone," Selectman Lambalot agreed.

The chairman next cited incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a letter from Clara Morgan asking that the board declare the week of September 17 - September

A letter of resignation was received from Susan Drake, who is stepping down from her position on the town's Council on Aging due to her position with Coastline Elderly Services, Inc. The board agreed that she will be sorely missed on the council and that her efforts have been greatly appreciated by residents.

A letter from the Division of Marine Fisheries advised the board that the waters and flats and all tributaries of an area northeast of Mattapoissett Harbor and the boundaries stretching southeasterly from Ned's Point Lighthouse to Strawberry Point, including Pine Island Pond and Crescent Beach, are restricted

Chapter 130, Section 57 and 68A, Mr. Taylor must apply to the town for a new aquacultural license or shellfish grant.

The board agreed to set a hearing date for Mr. Taylor to come in and discuss his proposal further with them and any interested parties.

"What we need to see before that time is a detailed map to determine exactly which location he's talking about," Selectman Mahoney said.

A certified letter was received from Attorney John A. Birknes Jr. regarding a notice of claim on behalf of Kenneth and Sharon Truestad. The claim is being brought against the town with regard to a request the couple made to develop lots owned by them on Heritage Lane.

"Basically this is an appeal of a Conservation Commission decision," Selectman Mahoney said.

The board said they would research this matter further at a later date.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams next went over a cost estimate she received from Art Souza of ComElectric regarding the relocation and replacing of lines from the wharf to the school. The total estimated cost is $498,750, which the board is not willing to consider at the present time. Apparently, the repairs were suggested by area vendors who are concerned that the lines were shaken by Hurricane Bob last year and may be in danger of coming down.

Ms. Adams next announced plans for a Special Town Meeting to be held on Tuesday, October 13 at 7:30 pm at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

Both Ms. Adams and the board discussed some potential article items for the Town Meeting warrant, including several unpaid bills; a $30,000 request from the Police Department for funding in the aftermath of two consecutive years of budget cuts; the salary structure for part-time police and town employees; and the funding of the annual town report and warrants.

"I think we really should have a continuing appropriation fund for public services," Selectman Mahoney said. "I know there is a way to footnote an item to be able to keep paying out of the account without requiring another Town Meeting vote. In the case of necessary services like legal counsel, it would save us some embarrassment."

In discussing the part-time salaries, the board agreed that all town employees should be considered, not just part-time police officers.

"I think we shouldn't support (salary changes) unless we also do so for all town employees," Selectman Lambalot said.

Another important issue, according to Ms. Adams, was keeping a reasonable amount of money in the town's Reserve Fund, which has been depleted in the wake of financial strains over the past year. Joseph Bolton of the town Finance Committee (FinCom) recommended keeping at least $50,000 in the Reserve Fund, which both Selectman Lambalot and Selectman Lambalot strongly agreed with.

Ms. Adams said that Mr. Bolton of the Finance Committee (FinCom) would like to meet with the board to discuss various items that will appear on the Town Meeting warrant.

A joint meeting of the Board of Selectmen and the FinCom will take place on Tuesday, September 15.

Ms. Adams next announced a Continental Cablevision presentation of "Hurricane Bob in Mattapoisett," which was slated to be shown on the station's Bay 8 channel on Wednesday, September 2 at 9:20 pm.

There being no further business, Selectman Lambalot motioned to adjourn,

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

September 1, 1992

A meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was convened on Tuesday, September 1, 1992 at 7:00 pm by Chairwoman Loretta B. Schaefer. Present were Selectman

Edwin "Ted" Pratt Jr., Selectman James S. Dougall, Executive Secretary Ray Pickles and Secretary Helene Craver.

After the signing of warrants and the approval of minutes for the August 18, 1992 meeting, the board met with Police Chief Brian Scott and members of the Finance Committee to discuss a proposal to purchase the former Shawmut Bank building located at 36 Main Street for use as a new Police Station.

The meeting was an opportunity for all parties to come together and share their thoughts and plans for the project.

Chief Scott was asked to speak first on behalf of his proposal, but said after considering the matter further and getting valuable input from several residents, he wanted to withdraw his initial request to purchase the Main Street location.

He said he had received some other suggestions and ideas and wanted to pursue every possible course before committing to a final decision.

Carol Sanz, a resident who was present at the meeting, said the Review Board had suggested that a new location be found before the year 2000, and was puzzled as to why everyone was so willing to change locations now.

In addition, Ralph Townley questioned the adequacy of the existing facility and didn't think a radical increase in crimes around town had forced such an immediate change of venue. He said the present site seems well-suited for the needs of the town.

Chairwoman Scahefer thanked everyone for coming to the meeting and for expressing their thoughts and concerns on the matter.

The board next signed and approved a cooperative agreement between the Town of Marion and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service giving the town a $10,000 grant for beach cleanup in the area.

Agreement to the 1971 Water Agreement between the Towns of Marion and Rochester was next cited by the board, having been signed last week with the Rochester Board of Selectmen.

The board also signed a contract between the Town of Marion and A&W Artesian Well Company for work at the Perry Hill site's East and West wells in accordance with the revised agreement with the Town of Rochester.

Chairwoman Schaefer next went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a letter from Patricia Q. Dawson regarding Chief Scott's request to purchase the Shawmut Bank property.

Ms. Dawson was concerned over having a police station next door with "round-the-clock disturbances from police cruiser squawk boxes, sirens, flashing lights, and increased close-at-hand traffic."

A similar letter was received from Eleanor M. McPeck stating that she is "firmly opposed to the proposed plan and trust that some other location will be found."

Clifford H. Tuttle Jr. of Register Road in Marion sent the board a letter commending Harbor Master George Jennings for providing service when his boat accidentally hit a ledge near the Canal. Mr. Jennings and John Farnum towed Mr. Tuttle's boat back to Marion, for which the owner was extremely grateful.

ORR Superintendent of Schools Joan M. Walsh sent a letter to the board advising them that the District School Committee has voted to reinstate extra-curricular activities which had been cut from the 1991-92 budget. With a state appropriation of $100 per pupil, the district is able to afford restoration of these programs.

Commander Clayton L. Hagy of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary wrote to the board to ask that they grant a request to hold an outing at the Pavilion on Island Wharf. The outing is scheduled to take place between 6:00 and 9:00 pm on September 16, 1992, which the board unanimously moved.

A letter was received from Robert C. Yardley Jr. regarding a request of the town to expand the toll-free calling area of the Marion (748) exchange. According to Mr. Yardley, recent decisions made by the Department of Public Utilities have disapproved of the expansion of toll-free calling areas to include more than the customers' home and contiguous exchanges. The board was curious as to why the request was denied and said they would look into the matter further.

Chairwoman Schaefer next read a notice from the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs advising the board that the Massachusetts Coastal Zone Management Office (MCZM) hereby gives notice of amendments to Massachusetts' General Laws regarding routine program implementation.

There being no further matters to come before the Board of Selectmen, Chairman Pratt commenced with the Board of Health agenda for the evening.

Marion Board of Health

September 1, 1992

The board sent a letter to Marina K. Kiklis of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regarding the town's response concerning a NPDES permit dated June 8.

The letter was sent to state the town's intentions to fully support the NPDES permit specifications and will comply but asks that the request be modified to reflect concerns centering on total residual chlorine, wastewater flow, copper monitoring, and LC-50 and C-NOEC testing.

An approval of a waiver application for the Sunoco Service Station located at 413 Wareham Street was sent to the board, allowing the proprietors to remove contaminated earth left on their property.

A notice was sent to the board of a public meeting to be conducted by the Rochester Board of Health on Wednesday, September 16, 1992 at 8:00 pm at the Rochester Town Hall. The hearing will consider the application of Antonio Sol d/b/a Sol Brothers, Inc. of 118 Cushman Road for the site assignment of a piggery/hog farm and fish gurry operation.

The Massachusetts Department of Public Health advised the board of that residents of southeastern Massachusetts should take precautions against mosquitoes in an effort to prevent cases of eastern (equine) encephalitis (EE) this summer.

The EE virus has been detected in mosquitoes trapped on August 16, 1992 in Easton. Simple precautions include limiting time spent outdoors where there is increased mosquito activity and to use mosquito repellent and/or wear long-sleeved shirts or long pants when outdoors during those times.

A report was sent to the board from Aquatec, Inc. with results of water samples taken at Silvershell Beach, Island Wharf, Campgrounds, and Planting Island sites. Tests concluded that all sites were favorable for swimming, with fecal coliform levels at or well below the recommended level.

An 8:00 pm appointment with Jimmy's Variety for an all-alcohol license was next on the agenda to provide the business with a seasonal permit to sell all types of alcohol at their establishment.

The business presently has a beer and wine permit.

Since it is required that they hold a seasonal permit for one year prior to receiving a full permit, the board granted them the seasonal permit and advised Mrs. Masterson, who is the wife of the owner, that the town will make the necessary arrangements to apply for a year-round permit next year.

There being no further business to conduct with either the Board of Health or the Board of Selectmen, the meeting adjourned at 8:07 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting August 31, 1992

A meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was convened on Monday, August 31, 1992 at 7:01 pm by Chairman Harry A. Brown Jr. Also present were Selectman L. Joseph Covas Jr., Selectman Lorraine R.C. Roy, and Administrative Secretary Shirley Ferreira. Selectman Covas moved to approve the minutes of the August 24, 1992 meeting, which was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

An appointment for 7:00 pm was made to discuss a request by the Hiller Corporation to install a 4,000-gallon underground storage tank on property owned by the applicant.

There being no abutters present and no objections heard, the request — which was pre-approved by the Fire Chief — was motioned for approval by Selectman Covas and seconded by Selectman Roy, whereby Chairman Brown unanimously approved the request.

Chairman Brown then went into incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a list of informational guidelines from the Department of Revenue regarding the town's annual assessment and allocation of tax levy limits.

Extensive paperwork was received from the Executive Office of Communities and Development (EOCD) regarding Round Two of the Municipal Incentive Grant Program. Chairman Brown said the lengthy document will be left in the Town Hall for public perusal.

The next piece of correspondence was to inform the board of "The Flattest Century in the East," a 100-mile bike race which is slated to run from Tiverton, RI to Middleboro, MA. Portions of the route include a section of Rochester, for which the organizers requested permission. The race will take place on Sunday, September 13.

A copy of letter from Public Prosecutor Harry J. Schmitt Jr. to Police Chief Walter P. Denham was sent to the board regarding a request from Murphy's Auto Salvage. The business has apparently requested court action be taken to advertise four vehicles they need to dispose (1 from Rochester, 3 from Marion). The owner has agreed to pay for advertising costs and Mr. Schmitt asked for permission to proceed with the court action.

The chairman next read a letter into the record from Kopelman and Paige, P.C.

Rum Punch • Elmore Leonard
Delacourt Press, $21

With Rum Punch, Elmore Leonard turns once again, as he did in Maximum Bob, to the steamy, corrupt shores of Florida to dig for sleazeballs. This time, he both succeeds and delights readers.

Rum Punch is the story of Jackie Burke. Burke latches onto Ordell Robbie, who hires her to smuggle in a half a million dollars he stashed in a Bahama bank.

But when Jackie meets bail bondsman Max Cherry, he falls for her and ends up in the middle of the ordeal.

Elmore Leonard is a master of plotting, with intricate twists and turns. His characters may not have the deepest levels of human complexities, but in terms of style and plot, Leonard is the best.

Crossed Over: A Murder, A Memoir • Beverly Lowry
Alfred A. Knopf, $22

This book is the story of a woman attempting to emerge from self-isolation.

Beverly Lowry is a novelist of some acclaim, but in Crossed Over she turns to her own life, telling the heartbreaking story of her teenage son Peter's death in a hit-and-run accident. It's as sad a story as you can conjure.

Crossed Over is something of a hybrid: an uncommonly literate account of a true crime, and a moving memoir of a mother-without-child. The resonances are many — of loss, guilt, redemption, of a search for equilibrium. But by writing this book, Lowry has broken through to the surface.

regarding the Board of Appeals request for legal assistance in the matter of an application of Zoning By-Laws to the Town of Marion's Proposed Water Pump System.

Attorney Joel B. Bard stated in the letter, "In my opinion, the Town of Marion is subject to all of the provisions set forth in Rochester's zoning by-laws. It is also my opinion that the Board of Appeals' notice of its upcoming public hearing may only refer to the special permit for application which the Town of Marion has filed."

The advice of counsel was requested in the wake of Marion's revised agreement with the Town of Rochester last week to tap the Perry Hill site. Mr. Bard advised the board that the water pump station must comply with the provisions set forth in Section VII of the zoning by-laws since the site is also located within the Flood Plain.

Chairman Brown next read a letter from the state Division of Employee Retirement and Administration regarding a funding schedule for retired municipal employees.

According to the memo, the Plymouth County Retirement System did not establish a funding schedule pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 22D or Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 22(6A) prior to July 1, 1992. These laws dictate that towns whose employees are members of the Plymouth County Retirement System cannot accept the provisions of the Under old business, Chairman Brown discussed a second letter (August 28, 1992) which was sent to the Town of Fairhaven regarding septage/waste disposal. Mr. Brown said he would like the Water/Sewer Commission to look into the matter further and make a recommendation to the Board of

The board next dealt with a request from Mrs. Lopes for an earth removal permit on the Tavares property, d/b/a NHT Corporation. The company runs a small cranberry business and has been seeking a permit to remove gravel from a section of the land via abutting property.

Chairman Brown, however, suggested that due to the owner's delinquent taxes, the request be denied until such time that the bill is paid.

As of August 31, NHT Corporation owed a total of $3,802.00 — $856.40 of which was due for 1991. It was at this point that Selectman Covas pointed out that the town legally cannot deny a license or permit in lieu of taxes that are overdue for less than one year. He suggested that the board approve the request when the overdue balance of $856.40 was paid.

Selectman Roy agreed, saying that the law requires the outstanding balance be paid for 1991 before being granted a permit.

Mr. Covas made a motion to that effect, stipulating that the remaining balance will be due by the end of 1992. The motion was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

Jean Rose, a representative of the company, later came in to the board to ask what needed to be done to get the permit. She was advised of the board's decision and told that she now needed to go through the public hearing process again.

Chairman Brown discussed some verbal complaints regarding Plumbing Inspector Roger Balduc, which he said he's received from several people. The complaints mostly centered on difficulties in contacting Mr. Balduc for services. Selectman Covas asked if there were also complaints about Assistant Plumbing Inspector Steve McGraw, which Chairman Brown didn't know about.

"Well, perhaps we should publicize the fact that we have an alternate plumbing inspector and see if there are still problems," Mr. Covas said.

The board also agreed to send a letter to Mr. Balduc advising him of the complaints received and asked that the names and numbers of both inspectors be announced in the press. Mr. Roger Balduc, Rochester's Plumbing Inspector, can be reached at 763-4996 (home) or 994-5416 (work) and Mr. Steven McGraw, Rochester's Assistant Plumbing Inspector, can be reached at 763-4691 (home).

Under new business, the board approved the scheduling of a Special Election for November 18, 1992 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Selectman L. Joseph Covas Jr. from the Board of Selectmen. Selectman Covas motioned the special election, which was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

The articles which will be placed on the upcoming October 5 Special Town Meeting were also up for approval by the board, which Chairman Brown said would require a vote to amend Article 3 on the Town Meeting Warrant of May, 1992.

Chairman Brown cited an Earth Removal Permit request from the SEMASS Partnership which would allow the company to transfer earth from their local site. Selectman Covas said he would move the permit, with the necessary fees attached. Last year, the town received about $1,800 for removal of approximately 8,000 cubic yards. This year they expect to receive about $1,650. The motion was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

A 7:30 pm appointment with Jason Ritter was next on the agenda, regarding an Earth Removal Permit request from the applicant's High Street property. The applicant wishes to remove gravel from his property to nurture a Cranberry Bog. In order to do so, the permit would grant him permission to repair the exiting culp on High Street and widen the street for a 25-foot length up to County Road.

The board said they needed further information before making a final decision on the matter and agreed to do so pending those Finance Committee Chairwoman Patricia Ryan next came before the board to update some of the changes made in the revised FY 1993 budget. Ms. Ryan said that as of preparing her latest figures, the town was only 37 cents in the hole. But a member of her committee pointed out that the overlay reserve figures needed to be changed, putting the budget back in the red to the tune of $11,000.

"What we have to do now is juggle the numbers on our estimated receipts," she said, "then we shouldn't have too much of a problem. That would be the only figure that would change from this latest version."

But Chairman Brown was concerned about making up the recommended $65,000 in revenue at the upcoming Special Town Meeting.

"It behooves me and all town officials to determine where this $65,000 is coming from," he said. "I mean, are we going to run into trouble by cutting the Memorial School budget by $14,000?"

Ms. Ryan allayed his fears, saying "We can only cut what hasn't already been spent. We haven't completed our Town Meeting yet. The (Memorial School) budget is still up by 4.3 percent. I've checked with the schools and I've spoken with the school committee.

"Believe me, if we cut them too much, they'd tell us," she said.

Ms. Ryan asked that the board set up another joint meeting with the Finance Committee (FinCom) to determine where everyone stands in supporting the upcoming overrides.

"We've got $65,000 in overrides from various departments," she said. "This is not going to be a decision of the FinCom alone ... it has to be a joint determination of the Board of Selectmen and the Finance Committee."

Chairman Brown agreed that the board will meet with the FinCom on Tuesday, September 8 at 7:30 pm. The regular meeting of the Board of Selectmen — postponed because of the Monday Labor Day holiday — will be pushed up to 6:30 to accommodate the hefty agenda.

An 8:00 pm scheduled meeting with Police Chief Walter Denham and Officer James Wassmouth was next to discuss Officer Wassmouth's attending the forthcoming police academy session for certification.

According to Chief Denham, Officer Wassmouth has agreed under the updated guidelines of the MA Criminal Justice Training Council, to attend the next academy training program — beginning October 5 — with the understanding that the Town of Rochester waive his salary for the period.

In this way, the town need only pay for his insurance and medical costs during his time in the academy — a service they would have to provide while he remained a reserve officer on the force.

"I think it's in the town's best interest to allow him to attend with a salary waiver," Chief Denham said.

"Because, frankly, no one at the present time knows when and where the next academy session will take place. I don't think we have any better alternatives at this time."

The board agreed to sign an agreement with Officer Wassmouth at the next (September 8) Selectmen's meeting to that effect, granting him a salary waiver for the time he attends the academy training session.

The meeting was then moved to the conference room where cake and coffee were served in honor of departing Selectman L. Joseph Covas Jr. Mr. Covas was given a framed insignia of the Town of Rochester and various other parting gifts and wishes.

The meeting was reconvened in the Selectmen's office to discuss a few remaining issues, one of which was a memo from Ray Pickles, Executive Secretary of the Marion Board of Selectmen, regarding last week's revised water agreement with the Town of Rochester.

Chairman Brown said that Marion has agreed to run an eight-inch main across the street to Town Hall to set up a fire hydrant outside and two new taps inside the building. The total cost of the work — about $4,000 — will be paid by the Town of Marion as part of the new water agreement.

Mr. Brown next cited a memo from the Mattapoissett River Valley Authority, on which Mr. Covas has served as representative for the Town of Rochester. In the wake of Mr. Covas' departure, Selectman Lorraine R.C. Roy will now serve as official representative, with Chairman Harry A. Brown Jr. as an alternate.

The committee's next meeting, slated for September 9, will be held in the Rochester Town Hall at 7:30 pm.

Chairman Brown next discussed a letter he drafted in support of the overrides on the October 5 Special Town Meeting. The letter, which he read to his fellow board members, will be signed by all three selectmen, pending some minor changes, and sent to the local media for publication. Selectman Covas said he would also support all the overrides and agreed to return to sign the completed letter later this week.

With all business finished for the evening, Chairman Brown asked Selectman Covas for a motion to adjourn, which he reluctantly made, pointing out that once the meeting was adjourned, he would no longer be a selectman.

Selectman Roy seconded the motion and both board members openly thanked Mr. Covas for his splendid work over the past eight months and expressed their regrets in his leaving the board.

The board adjourned for the evening at 9:28 pm.

Two residents have taken out papers for Selectman's job

As of August 31, 1992, Administrative Secretary Shirley Ferreira said two Rochester residents have taken out papers to run for the position left vacated in the wake of L. Joseph Covas Jr.'s resignation from the Board of Selectmen.

Those who have filed papers to date are former Selectman David L. Hughes of 79 Sarah Sherman Road and Michael Bare of 277 Braley Hill Road.

Town Clerk Naida L. Parker said the deadline to file for the position — which will be decided in a November 18 Special Election — is September 30.

Bay Girl Scout Council of Plymouth Girl Scouts Offer Local Sign-up Rallies

There has never been a better time to find out about Girl Scouting, and right now the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council, Inc. is offering local registration information for girls never involved in Girl Scouting.

During these hard economic times, we're the best bargain in town. While town resources, community services and after-school programs are in decline, Girl Scout membership is on the rise — last year, one out of every six girls in Southeastern Massachusetts participated in Girl Scout programs.

Girl Scout programs have also grown and changed, and today's Girl Scouting offers contemporary activities which provide girls 5 - 17 with a competitive edge in mathematics and technology, and give girls the skills needed to handle such difficult problems as family crisis, poverty and teenage suicide. Perhaps most important, Girl Scouting offers these essential programs in a unique, all-girl setting, where girls can gain confidence and leadership skills, under the guidance of trained, caring adults.

In Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester sign-up information flyers will be distributed to elementary schools, the week of September 8. Or call us at 1-800-242-0925 to find out how you can get involved in Girl Scouting.

American Cancer Society

More than 100 residents of Greater New Bedford have already registered for Making Strides: The Seventh Annual Terry Fox Run, a five-mile move-along-athon on Sunday, September 20 to benefit the American Cancer Society's Greater New Bedford Unit. More participants from the area will be needed, however, to raise the goal of $10,000, according to Linda Camara, Unit President.

"Making Strides is an inspirational event for everyone who participates, because it so clearly shows the progress that has been made against cancer in recent years," Mrs. Camara said. "Terry Fox's spirit lives on. Even though cancer claimed his life before he could complete his run across Canada in 1981, his determination is alive and well in thousands of people who annually run in his name to beat cancer. Last year this event raised $200,000 in Massachusetts. I'd like to encourage former cancer patients, their families and friends, and members of the public to call the American Cancer Society for a registration form."

Diana Golden, winner of a 1988 Olympic gold medal for skiing, is honorary chairperson for Making Strides. Ms. Golden lost a leg to cancer at age 12. She will be at the Boston location.

The non-competitive move-along-athon invites people to walk, run, bicycle, use a wheelchair, or roller skate for all or part of the five-mile route around Buttonwood Park.

Prizes will be awarded for various levels of money that is raised and brought in by September 20. Prize levels include: $25 — Making Strides cap; $50 — Making Strides T-Shirts; $100 — T-Shirt & Hip bag; $250 — T-Shirt and windbreaker; $500 — T-Shirt and personal stereo; $750 — T-Shirt and portable CD player; $1,500 — T-Shirt and in-line roller skates; $2,500 — T-Shirt and city bike. A grand prize will be announced and awarded to the person who raises the highest amount of money.

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich

Waterfowl Stamp Contest Art Displayed

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich is currently exhibiting waterfowl art in conjunction with its seasonal show "The Songless Aviary: The World of A.E. Crowell & Son," in the Art Museum. On August 15, Heritage Plantation of Sandwich hosted the Massachusetts' Waterfowl stamp contest, sponsored by Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife. The competition is sponsored by Peabody Museum of Salem, but after this year, in honor of the exhibition at Heritage which features the work of Carver A. Elmer Crowell, the competition was moved to Sandwich.

Donald E. Little of South Burlington, VT won the contest with his painting of a red-breasted merganser decoy, originally carved by William Harris. This image will become the commonwealth's 20th waterfowl stamp and will be issued for 1993. These stamps are required of all waterfowlers hunting in Massachusetts, and are increasingly being sought by stamp and art collectors.

All of the art from the competition, including Mr. Little's painting, will be on view in the art museum, until the museum closes on Sunday, October 25.

Tickets are $7.00 for adults, $6.00 for Senior Citizens, $3.50 for youths ages 6 - 18, and five and under are free.

"Cross Country, USA" — Fourth Changing Art Show

"Cross Country, USA," marine paintings by Dean Waite of East Hampton, CT, is the fourth changing art show which opens in the Old Barn Gallery at Heritage Plantation, Sunday, September 6 and runs through Sunday, September 27. A "Meet the Artist" reception will be held on opening day from 1:00 - 3:00 pm.

Mr. Waite's paintings show an obvious love of the sea. His works have a comfortable familiarity ... you feel you may have seen them before ... and you probably have. He has painted magazine covers for Yachting, Motorboating, Open Road for Boys, and others as well as illustrations for Associated Press, Houghton Mifflin, and other publishers.

A member of the American Society of Marine Artists, his paintings depict ships of all sorts; aircraft carriers, submarines, schooners, and tall ships including the Coast Guard Eagle and the famous Danmark. His works have hung in museums on both coasts, and he is represented in many corporate and private collections.

An honor graduate of the Vesper George Art School in Massachusetts, he went on to positions as Art Director for Purnell Company in Boston, Advertising Manager of the Simplex Time Recorder Company, Art Director for the Meyercord Company of New York, the Associated Press, and 10 years with the Boeing Company in Seattle from which he retired in 1988. His love of the natural beauty around him such as the ocean, lakes, mountains and trees of the Pacific Northwest contribute heavily to his work.

Wherever he lives, Mr. Waite paints the subjects of that environment and captures the feeling of that specific area. His keen attention to details helps him to understand how things go together. This knowledge allows him to know what to leave out of his paintings in order to be spontaneous without losing accuracy of detail.

Most of the 25 paintings in the show are for sale. All sales are handled through the Museum Store.

Tickets to the museum will be honored for this show as well as all shows and exhibits on the grounds. Adults are $7.00, Senior Citizens $6.00, youths 6 - 18 years $3.50, and five and under are free. For more information, please call 888-3300.

Southeastern Massachusetts Area Health Education Center

Southeastern Massachusetts AHEC Receives Funding to Implement a Parinatal Care Assistant Program

The Health Resource Service

Administration (HRSA) has recently awarded the Southeastern Massachusetts Area Health Education Center (SMAHEC) a total of $104,462 to implement a Parinatal Care Assistant Training Program. SMAHEC, Bristol Community College and Charlton Memorial Hospital will develop and implement a Certified Parinatal Specialist Training program.

The goal of this program is to reduce the infant mortality rate in Southeastern Massachusetts particularly its poor, minority, disadvantaged and underserved population through increasing the awareness, knowledge, skill and practice of parinatal care among its region's health care/human service workforce.

To achieve this goal a Comprehensive Parinatal Training Initiative will be implemented consisting of the following components: the development and implementation of a 60 hour Certified Parinatal Specialist Training Program; a forum comprised of trainees and representatives from the Southeastern Massachusetts hospitals, educational institutions and community agencies that will identify long-term strategies addressing the shortage of parinatal health care providers.

During its two year duration this program will recruit and train over 100 health care professionals as Certified Parinatal Specialists. These providers are expected to come from multidisciplinary fields including nursing, nutrition and human service, and will demonstrate an interest in working with low-income minority disadvantaged, drug/alcohol addicted women of childbearing age.

Preference for the program will be given to either those already working with high-risk women and to those participants with linguistic and cultural backgrounds reflective of the area's high-risk population who meet admission criteria for the program.

The project directors are Dr. Patricia Mc Partland, Executive Director of SMAHEC, Ann Marie San Antonio, Nursing Director for Charlton Memorial Hospital and Dr. Marie Marshall, Chairperson of Nursing at Bristol Community College.

The Video Review

Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country (PG) — An honorable send-off, though by now the cast is so ancient that during the battle scenes, you worry that they'll break a hip or something. Director Nicholas Meyer, who previously made the best film in the series (Star Trek II), comes up with an entertaining whodunit and doesn't pump the material with more significance than it can hold. It looks more at home on video, and die-hard Trekkers (Trekkies? Trekmeisters?) get an added two minutes of footage excised from theater prints. B+

Wayne's World (PG-13) — The biggest comedy pair to come out of Saturday Night Live since the Blues Brothers, Wayne Campbell (Mike Myers) and Garth Elgar (Dana Carvey) shot this unassuming and rather enjoyable comedy to the top. The movie is remarkably like 1983's Strange Brew, the box-office failure turned cable-TV cult item starring Dave Thomas and Rick Moranis as the McKenzie brothers. Both films feature gentle, proudly useless goofballs who fill their days with fun, ritualistic activities and spritz each other with pop culture jokes. Nothing in Strange Brew, though, offers the immediate high of Wayne, Garth, and their pals lip-synching to Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody" while cruising the streets of Aurora. A-

Whaling Museum Seeks Volunteers

The New Bedford Whaling Museum is seeking applicants who wish to become volunteer guides or library aides. Applicants must successfully complete a 13-week course given by the Museum staff at no charge. It covers the economic, political and social history of the Old Dartmouth area, as well as the story of whaling and other industries. Artists who have lived and painted here are part of the curricula. Volunteers will then be able to lead guided tours of the museum, give talks on whaling and local history to school groups and other organizations, and assist on special projects.

Applicants must have an interview with members of the Museum's Volunteer Council and the Museum's Education Department before starting the course. The first session of the course is Monday, October 5, and subsequent meetings are every Monday thereafter for three hours for 13-weeks. There is a break around the holidays.

To get more information and arrange an interview, please call Pat Perry at the Museum 997-0046 so that she can schedule an interview.

Silver-Haired Legislature

A statewide election for the Massachusetts Silver-Haired Legislature will be held during the week of September 21 - 25. Local place, day and time will be announced, if local candidates take out nomination papers.

Massachusetts senior citizens aged 60 or older, currently registered voters, residing in the districts they seek to represent, and who are willing to serve are encouraged to run for the two-year term.

The Silver-Haired Legislature was established in the Commonwealth in 1980 to provide an educational and advocacy/training action program for the elderly. It is a grass-roots, non-partisan organization dedicated to promoting the well-being of the elderly and their families. Patterned after the General Court of the Commonwealth, its members consist of 40 Senators and 160 Representatives elected from the same districts as the General Court. It is the only advocacy group whose members are elected by their peers.

Candidates for the 1993 - 1994 session of the Legislature must file nominating petitions, certified by the local election commission, that at least 25 of the signers meet the residency, age, and registration requirements. These must be submitted to the Legislature office.

Nomination petitions are available at the tri-town COA offices. For local information, call the Rochester COA at 763- 8723; Mattapoisett COA at 758- 4110; or Marion COA at 748- 3570.

An aardvark in every issue.

The Great Aardvark Hunt Is On!

We've received quite a few comments about The Great Aardvark Hunt, as some have called it. A few found them right away and some people needed a few hints.

The location of last week's aardvarks is listed below.

This week there is only one hidden aardvark. It's a little harder to find this one, and it will get harder and harder each week. Good Luck!

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

Last week's aardvarks were hidden-
